

Hyundai Wia Machine America Technical Centers

East Rutherford, NJ • Elk Grove Village, IL • Cypress, CA

International Offices

Buenos Aires, Argentina • Offenbach, Germany • Raunheim, Germany • Beijing, China • Shanghai, China
Guangzhou, China • Chengdu, China • Wuhan, China • Qungdao, China • Tamilnadu, India

Hyundai-Wia is a member of the Hyundai Motor Group, the 5th largest automobile manufacturer in the world with assembly plants, technical centers, and design centers throughout the world including North America. The 2009 Hyundai Genesis was the North American Car of the Year. In 2011, the Hyundai Sonata and the Kia Sportage were named International Car and Truck of the Year, respectively.

Machine Tools - To supply it's own needs, Hyundai Wia begin machine tool production in 1976. In 1983, Hyundai Wia built the first machining center in Korea. Today, Hyundai-Wia Machine is #1 in Korea's domestic market share for machine tools and they have maintained that #1 market share position ahead of rivals Doosan, Samsung, and Hwacheon for the past 9 years.

Automobile Parts - 2nd largest automobile parts manufacturer in South Korea and the world's 4th largest supplier of C.V. joints. Hyundai-Wia supplies half-shafts, axles, and PTU's, to many of the world's top automakers including General Motors, Chrysler, Nissan, and others.

Aerospace & Defense – Design and development of naval artillery systems as well as landing gear on many commercial and military airplanes including Lockheed Martin's F-16 Fighting Falcon.